

Blane Nicholson's duffle bag looks like he smuggled a couple siblings in.

Our speaker for the week, Pastor Robert Vincent, opened with a foundational lesson for this week's study on the life of Daniel.

Stockyard Scramble ►

What do you get when you mix 82 trailhands with Trail Trivia, Stockyard Spelling, and Prairie Pictionary? 82 people who probably shouldn't quit their cowherding jobs.

Rollin,' rollin,' rollin'

Monday's stage coach brought a rollicking company of youths to Cayenne Valley upon the news that the late "Texas Pete" Lindsey's precious parcel of prosperous property was up for auction. Two rival trailbosses—one Crazy Cowboy Michael Schaedel, the other Rowdy Rancher Asher Vincent—are both eager to stake their claim to the property and thus have hired on the starry-eyed greenhorn cowpokes to build their herds to drive to market. With one week to drive their herds and earn enough beef bucks to outbid the other, the two gangs are prepared to duke it out. Do we smell a challenge? Or maybe it's just the cows. Either way, this is sure to be an exciting week.
