Training Minds and Character of Young Children

Jeanne Vincent

Memory Passage: Deuteronomy 6:6-7

<sup>6</sup> These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart. <sup>7</sup> You shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

1. What is character?

A. Definitions

1. Oxford dictionary – the mental and moral qualities distinctive to an individual.
2. “Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.” – John Wooden

B. As Christians what should our character exemplify?

1. An example – God’s testimony of Job
Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless, upright, fearing God and turning away from evil.
2. Obedience to God’s commands and instructions
3. Christlikeness

C. Our motivation – to live to bring glory to God

D. Our source of character qualities comes from the Bible

Micah 6:8 He has told you, O man, what is good; And what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

II. How can we train the minds and character of our children?

A. By example

Proverbs 23:26 Give me your heart, my son, and let your eyes delight in my ways.

1. Our example
Titus 2:7 In all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds. . . .

“Wicked parents are the most notable servants of the devil in all the world and the bloodiest enemies to their children’s souls. More souls are damned by God through the influence of ungodly parents – and next [to] them . . . ungodly ministers and magistrates – than by any instruments in the world besides.”

Richard Baxter

2. Other Godly examples
  - a. Bible examples
  - b. Others who have lived for God throughout history
  - c. Present day examples
3. Be on guard for examples that counteract the teaching of Christian character.

“A religious education should be consistent. It should extend to everything that is likely to assist in the formation of character . . . It should select the schools, the companions, the amusements, the books of youth. For if it do nothing more than merely teach a form of sound words to the understanding and the memory, while the impression of the heart and the formation of the character are neglected, very little is to be expected from such efforts.”

John Angell James

B. By instruction

Deuteronomy 6:6-7 <sup>6</sup>These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart. <sup>7</sup>You shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

1. Content is the Bible
  - a. II Timothy 3:15 From childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

- b. II Peter 1:3 His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.
  - c. Book of Proverbs
2. Wealth of resources available to us today

Proverbs 4:4 Then he taught me and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; Keep my commandments and live."

- 1. Teach
- 2. Remind – valuable use of questions
- 3. Enforce
- 4. Praise and encourage

D. By Prayer – COMPLETE DEPENDENCE ON GOD

1. To change us
  - a. Enable us to be examples of Christ-like character

  - b. Give us wisdom to teach our children Christ-like character.

2. To change our children and mold their character. God must open their hearts to the truths put in their heads.
  - a. Not just outward conformity

  - b. Inner transformation

  - c. Frequently God uses hardships to teach us character.
    - 1) Abigail Adams in a letter to her son John Quincy, “It is not in the still calm of life . . . that great characters are formed. The habits of a vigorous mind are formed in contending with difficulties. Great necessities call out great virtues. When a mind is raised, and animated by scenes that engage the heart, then those qualities which would otherwise lay dormant, wake into life and form the character of the hero and statesman.”
    - 2) Romans 5:3-4 And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance; <sup>4</sup> and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope.
    - 3) Our character muscles grow in the difficult application of God’s truths to everyday life situation.
