

In what does Christ's exaltation consist?

This Jesus God raised up again, to which we are all witnesses. Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God. . . . Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified. (NASB; Acts 2:32-33a, 36).

The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had put to death by hanging Him on a cross. He is the one whom God exalted to His right hand as a Prince and a Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins (NASB; Acts 5:30-31).

For this reason also, God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name [Lord], so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father (NASB; Phil. 2:9-11).

Hebrews 1:8-9, 13

Christ's exaltation consists in His rising from the dead on the third day, ascending up into heaven, receiving the name which is above every name, and sitting down at the right hand of God the Father.
