

1. Mr. Sagacity “an aged gentleman came by”

sagacity = keen intelligence, shrewdness

“When [Pilgrim] was here, he was Fool in every man’s mouth, yet now he is gone, he is _____.”

2. Christiana “do you hear anything of his wife?”

Christiana: “I have sinned away _____.”

That night Christiana had a _____.

3. Neighbors “two of the women that were Christiana’s neighbors”

The eldest was Mrs. _____.

Her young companion was named _____.

Christiana: “Thou shalt go along with me as my _____.”

4. The wicket gate “I saw... all of them [go] up to the gate”

Instead of an answer, they heard _____.

Mercy fainted, afraid that _____.

“whose barking I turn to _____.”

5. Bad fruit “the boys did pluck them and began to eat”

The garden belonged to _____.

“My sons, you transgress, for that fruit is _____.”

If she had known whose it was, she would have _____.

6. Attack “two very ill-favored ones”

The two men began to _____.

They put themselves under the laws provided for _____.

A man called _____ came to their aid.

“I marveled... that you petitioned not the Lord there for a _____.”

7. Interpreter’s house “a house which stood in the way.”

They see several new sights, including:

1. A man holding a _____ in his hand.
2. A room with a _____ on the wall.
3. A _____ receives God’s mercies by looking up.
4. “You must learn of this _____ to suffer.”
5. The _____ quarrel not one with another.
6. The robin had a _____ in his mouth.

Then followed a lengthy discussion, a night’s rest, and preparations to depart.

Interpreter: “Go... fetch out _____ for these people.”