

1. The Cross “where Christian’s burden fell off his back”

“We should have pardon by _____ and _____.”

2. Retracing Christian’s steps “when Christian went by on pilgrimage”

Simple, and Sloth, and Presumption were _____.

The by-ways where _____ and _____ lost themselves at the foot of the Hill _____.

3. House Beautiful “so they went on”

“How now, my boys, do you love to _____, when no danger doth approach, and love to _____ so soon as the lions appear?”

Mercy had a visitor, and his name was _____.

Mercy: I purpose never to have a clog [obstruction] _____.

4. Matthew’s illness “the eldest son of Christiana fell sick”

It is the fruit of _____.

Christiana: O _____ boy! And O _____ mother!

5. Prudence “they should ask her some questions”

Matthew. “Where have the clouds their water?”

Prudence. “Out of _____.”

Matthew. “What may we learn from that?”

Prudence. “That ministers should fetch their doctrine _____.”

6. Valley of Humiliation “they began to go down the hill”

Christian did here meet with _____.

Mercy: This place, methinks, _____.