

1. The Valley of the Shadow of Death "longer than the other"

"a place, also, most strangely haunted with _____."

2. The Giant Maul "out thence came forth Maul, the giant"

Maul: Thou practisest the craft of a _____.

Great-heart: My business is _____.

3. Mr. Honest "an old pilgrim fast asleep"

Great-heart: Come man, be not so _____.

Honest: I came from the town of _____.

4. Mr. Fearing "that came on a pilgrimage out of his parts"

Honest: He had _____ in him,

but was one of the most _____ pilgrims.

Great-heart: "He was always afraid that he should _____ ...

_____ frightened him."

He lay at the Slough for about _____.

One _____ morning he got over.

However, somewhat surprisingly, he "made no stick" (didn't hesitate) at the _____, neither did he fear the _____.

He was a man of a _____,
only he was always kept _____,
and that made his life so _____ to himself,
and so _____ to others.

Christiana: This relation (telling the story) of Mr. Fearing has _____.

Mercy: something of him has also _____.

5. Mr. Self-will “Mr. Honest began to tell them of another”

“A man might follow the _____ as well as the _____
of the pilgrims.”

6. House of Gaius “Christiana then wished for an Inn”

The inn-keeper was a _____.

Samuel: let my brother Matthew be _____.

7. Slay-good “a giant that does much annoy the King’s highway”

They found him with one _____ in his hands.

8. Back at House of Gaius “brought him with him to his lodgings”

Gaius gave _____ to James.

9. Ready-to-halt “with his crutches in his hand”

I will lend thee [Mr. Feeble-mind] one of my _____.